Take Good Care of This Textbook

This textbook is the property of your school.
Take good care not to damage or lose it.

Here are 10 ways to help you take care of the book:

1. Cover the book with protective material, such as plastic, old newspapers or magazines.
2. Always keep the book in a clean dry place.
3. Be sure your hands are clean when you use the book.
4. Do not write on the cover or inside pages.
5. Use a piece of paper or cardboard as a bookmark.
6. Never tear or cut out any pictures or pages.
7. Repair any torn pages with paste or tape.
8. Pack the book carefully when you place it in your school bag.
9. Handle the book with care when passing it to another person.
10. When using a new book for the first time, lay it on its back. Open only a few pages at a time. Press lightly along the bound edge as you turn the pages. This will keep the cover in good condition.

2. What are some of the wild animals that you know?
3. Which animals do you like and why?
4. Which animals don't you like and why?

Exercise 1: Read the passage and answer the questions below.

The Animal Leader

Long ago, all the wild animals used to live without a leader. One day, they held a meeting and decided to choose their leader.

The first animal to show interest in becoming a leader was Lion. It was seconded by Hyena, Fox, Tiger and Leopard. The lion stood up to talk, and said; "Fellow animals, choose me as your leader. I am strong and tough. I will be able to protect you against our enemies."

After the lion, Zebra said, "Choose me as your leader. I would be a good leader because I am clean and gentle." Zebra warned the fellow animals against choosing the lion as a leader. He argued that the lion might mistreat them because it is tough. Giraffe, Monkey, Chimpanzee and Gorilla were of the same opinion.

Lastly, Elephant said, “We need a leader who is honest, caring and approachable. I think I am that kind of leader.” Elephant got the biggest number of supporters who included Buffalo, Hare, Baboon, Rhino, Kangaroo, Antelope and Hippopotamus. The elephant became the first leader of the wild animals.

1. Why did the animals hold a meeting?
2. Which animal first showed interest in being a leader?
3. How many animals wanted to become leaders?
4. What kind of person do you think makes a good leader?
5. Which of the three animals would you have chosen? Give reasons to explain your opinion.

Exercise 1: Read the texts below and answer the questions that follow.

Writing a shopping list

A shopping list is a list of items which one intends to buy from a shop.

Yesterday, Solomon went with his uncle for shopping. Before they left for town, Solomon's uncle wrote a shopping list. He did not want to forget some items.

When they reached town they went to Zeberga's shop. They bought 5 kilogrammes of sugar, 3 packets of flour, 1 litre of cooking oil, a bar of soap and a tray of eggs.

They went to the next shop. They bought a pair of bedsheets, a tin of vaseline and a blanket.

1. What did Solomon's uncle do before he left for town.
2. Why did he write a shopping list?
3. Write the shopping list which Solomon's uncle wrote?

Market Days

Every Wednesday is market day. There is a big market place where people go to buy and sell different items. It is held in an open space along the road.

Sellers come from towns with items tightly packed in big bags and loaded on lorries. They offload them and display them in stalls and some on the ground. The buyers then come from the villages near and far.

Market days are very enjoyable especially at the end of the month after people have got their salaries. The sellers bring many items ranging from cows to small things like safety pins.

The farmers sell their products. The carpenters sell furniture. The herdsmen sell animals. The fishmongers sell fish. The tailors sell clothes. The butchers sell meat. The iron-mongers sell saucepans.

Some traders sell a lot of things at low prices. These traders make a lot of money. However traders who sell expensive items, sell only a few and therefore make less money.

In the afternoon, the whole place is crowded and dirty. In the evening, all sellers and buyers leave the place happily.

1. What day is the market day?
2. Where is the market found?
3. Why do you think the market is held in open field?
4. Where do sellers come from?
5. Where do buyers come from?

Activity

The story about 'The Gate Crasher' is not complete. With a partner, read the first part of the story and discuss what you think happens next.

The Gate Crasher

As Seketa was walking home one day, he passed by a reception hall. He peeped through the entrance. He saw a nice big cake. "I should have a share of that cake," he thought. "I only need to go home and dress smartly", he said. Seketa did not know that all the guests had to show their invitation cards at the entrance to the reception hall.

Seketa rushed home. He wore his best suit. He looked at himself in the mirror. "I will be among the smartest guests," he said to himself.

Of course, Seketa did not have a present for the couple. He had no idea where he was going to get one at that time of the evening. He decided to wrap a stone in a colourful paper and he walked to the reception hall.

At the entrance, the usher asked Seketa for his invitation card. "I don't have any but I have a present for the couple," he said.

"I am sorry I can't let you in. The reception is strictly for invited guests," the gentleman at the entrance said.

A Listening and speaking

LESSON ONE

Activity 1

Discuss the following questions in groups of four and present to the class.

1. What kind of animals are found in your community?
2. Where do these animals live?
3. How does your community benefit from the presence of these animals?

Activity 2

In groups, describe what you see in the picture.

Exercise: Answer these questions

1. What animals are shown in the picture?
2. Where does one find such animals?
3. Why is the vegetation important to the animals?
4. How does Ethiopia benefit from protecting the above animals?

LESSON TWO

Listening

Activity 1

With a partner describe the different animals that live in the jungle. What dangers may you face if you go to the jungle? What do you know about the different animals?

Exercise: Your teacher will read to you a short passage about Hussein. Listen carefully and answer the following questions.

1. Why did Hussein go to the forest?
2. What did Hussein meet on the way to the forest?
3. How did the beast promise to catch up with Hussein?

5. Where was the beautiful white goat?
6. Why did Hussein forget the beast's warning?
7. What happened to the beautiful girl later in the evening?
8. What lesson did Hussein learn?

LESSON THREE

Grammar: Language practice

The past simple tense (revision)

Regular verbs

Activity 1

Use the past form of the following verbs and write about what you did last week. Compare your work with your partner's.

answer	open	cook	plant	fetch	study	roast
finish	collect	work	dance	visit

Find other verbs to which we add -ed in the past simple tense.

Exercise 1: Put the verbs in brackets in the past tense to say what Bekelu did yesterday.

Bekelu _____ (walk) to school to visit her daughter. She _____ (arrive) at school on time. She _____ (talk) to the school principal. He _____ (advise) her to help her daughter at home. She _____ (decide) to help her child. She _____ (agree) that she _____ (give) her child all the support she _____ (need).

Activity 2

In groups of four, identify ten regular verbs. Change the verbs into the past simple tense. Using the verbs you have identified, ask and answer questions in the past simple tense.

Exercise 2: Make 10 sentences in the present simple tense. Change these sentences to the past simple tense.

Example: (Present simple): She collects the books from the library.
She prepares breakfast.

(Past simple): She collected the books from the library.
She prepared breakfast.

LESSON FOURThe past simple tense*Irregular verbs*Activity 1

Read what Bekelu did yesterday. Compare the underlined verbs with the verbs in Lesson Three.

Bekelu went to the bookshop. She met the book seller and told him she wanted a book to buy. Bekelu knew that this was her duty. So, she didn't wait. She bought her daughter a dictionary. When Bekelu came home, she gave it to her daughter. She felt happy when she saw that her daughter was happy.

Exercise 1: Match the following words with their past form in the above paragraph.

tell see come give do meet know feel go buy

Activity 2

Discuss how the past is formed for the verbs in lesson three and four. What is the difference?

Activity 3

With a partner, form sentences in the past simple tense. Let your partner end the sentences as shown in the example.

Student: The dove saw the crocodile

Partner: and flew away.

Exercise 2: Change the verbs in brackets to past simple tense and form correct sentences in your exercise book.

1. The animal (hide) in the bush when the hunter shot.
2. They (hear) the sound of the gun and ran away.
3. The bird (fly) away quickly and disappeared.
4. When she (blow) the whistle, the animals came out of their hiding places.
5. A snake (bite) him as he was hiding in the jungle.

Exercise 3: Write 5 sentences in the past simple tense about your first day in school. When was it? Did you like it? What happened?

Grammar highlight:

We add -ed to regular verbs to change them to the past. Irregular verbs do not follow a particular rule to change to the past. Examples: come - came bite - bit. Some irregular verbs do not change. Examples: hit - hit.

LESSON FIVE

Using: What did ...? Did he ...? Yes, he did / No, he didn't

Activity

With your partner, discuss these sentences. Form Wh questions about each of the sentences.

Examples: (a) Who wanted to hear a good story?

6. Did he sit next to his grandmother?
7. Did he talk to his grandmother?

LESSON SIX

Comprehension

A day in the jungle

Activity

With a partner read about the day of an animal in the jungle. Ask questions while your partner answers the questions. Change roles and let your partner read about another animal. Answer your partner's questions.

Exercise 1: Read the passages below and answer the questions that follow.

The antelope

The antelope was busy yesterday. She jumped from place to place looking for something to eat. This made her tired. She ate some fresh grass and drank water in the afternoon. She moved around looking for a place to rest. She took some rest under a tree.

The lion

The lion didn't get anything to eat the whole day. He chased many animals but failed to catch any. At midday, he lost hope. He decided to rest in the long grass. Later he got up again and walked around in hope that he would find something to eat. As he approached the river, he saw an antelope sleeping under a tree. He walked slowly towards the antelope.

1. What did the antelope eat?
2. How did the lion spend its day?
3. What did the antelope do at last?
4. Did the lion drink water?
5. Where did the antelope take rest?

Exercise 2: Think of any animal. Describe that animal. Try to imagine how that animal spends its day in the jungle.

LESSON SEVEN

Dialogue

Activity

Read the dialogue and practise it with a partner.

Fanose: Who are the people you were talking to yesterday?

Bogale: They are tourists. They wanted me to show them the Blue Nile Falls.

Fanose: Oh! I see. How did you come to know them?

Bogale: One of them is my friend. We were together at Beshofitu Junior School.

Fanose: Where do they come from?

Bogale: England. They are on holiday here. My friend said that he was happy to return after many years.

Fanose: What other places did they visit?

Bogale: They visited Awash Park and Lake Tana.

Fanose: Did they pay any money to visit those places?

Bogale: Oh yes, of course. They paid in foreign currency. Our government earns a lot of money from tourism.

Exercise 1: Answer questions about the dialogue.

1. What did the tourists want to see?
2. Where did Bogale and his friend meet?
3. Why did the tourists come?
4. What other places did the tourists visit?
5. How does the government benefit from tourism?

Exercise 2: Read the dialogue again and list the regular and irregular verbs used in the text.

10. Don't go to unauthorised places.
11. Don't steal or kill the animals.

Exercise 2: Design safety messages about using medicine. Write the messages in your exercise book.

LESSON NINE

Comprehension

Activity

Discuss the questions below.

1. Why are large areas of land reserved for animals?
2. What is the importance of wildlife to our country?
3. What attracts tourists to our country?
4. What does an archeologist do?

Tourism

We earn foreign income when tourists visit our country to see animals that are not in their countries. This explains why the government has made an effort to create and preserve wildlife in national parks where the animals are safe and can be taken care of by trained people.

Sometimes, the people who visit our country are interested in carrying out research on the historical background of the people. They dig up sites to discover more about the past and lives of the local people. These people are called archeologists and they have contributed a lot to the discovery of the history of a country and its people.

Whereas most tourists enjoy seeing the wildlife in national parks, others prefer watching the relief and physical features like Lake Tana and Blue Nile falls.

Some of the tourist attractions here include the Bahar Dar and Arbaminch, wide towns with beautiful palms and flowers. It is important that we conserve our wildlife, culture, historical sites and our environment.

Exercise 1: (a) Using information from the passage, state whether the statements below are true or false.

1. Government cannot preserve wildlife.
2. There are wild animals in the national park.
3. Tourists bring money to the country.
4. Animals are unsafe in the national parks.
5. There are few tourist attractions in our country.

(b) Give correct answers to the questions below.

1. Where do wild animals live?
2. What efforts has the government made towards protecting wildlife?
3. What is the work of an archeologist?
4. Who are the people who take care of animals in the park?
5. In which ways can tourism create employment?

Exercise 2: Match words in Table A with their meanings in Table B. These words are taken from the passage on tourism.

A	B
preserve	those who study about things of the past.
sites	money from outside the country.
foreign income	wild animals
research	keep
archeologists	places
wildlife	make a study

C Writing

LESSON EIGHTComprehension*Activity 1

Pre-reading questions: Discuss the questions in groups of five.

1. What is your favourite dish?
2. How do you prepare it?
3. How long does it take to prepare it?

Exercise: Read the passage and answer the questions.

Doro wot

Doro wot is one of the favourite dishes in Ethiopia. It is made of chicken, butter, onions, spices, pepper and eggs.

To prepare Doro wot, first, the chicken is slaughtered. Then it is put into hot water to remove the feathers, skin and other unwanted parts.

This is to prepare the chicken for cooking. Another pre-hand arrangement is to cut the chicken into 12 parts.

You need a considerable amount of onions to make good taste. The exercise of cutting the onions takes time as you have to cut small slices. When everything is ready, the chopped onions are cooked for a long time with red pepper and butter.

A person who cooks Doro wot should be very patient to stir the onions by adding butter or oil until the colour of the onions becomes brown.

Next, pieces of chicken, which are usually washed repeatedly, are put into the pan and cooked for 3-4 hours on average.

Finally, when it is ready, it is served to the guests or family members. Doro wot is such a special food that is usually prepared on special occasions.

- Doro wot* is the _____ people like most in our country
(a) flood (b) food (c) farm (d) choice
- Doro wot* might take _____ hours to prepare.
(a) 3 - 5 (b) 5 - 3 (c) 3 - 4 (d) 3 - 6
- The chicken is dissected into _____ parts.
(a) 21 (b) 14 (c) 12 (d) 22.
- Another word to mean chop is _____
(a) chalk (b) cook (c) cover (d) cut
- List the ingredients that are used to prepare Doro wot. Explain the procedure.

2. The government distributed 3,520,000 treated mosquito nets in an effort to prevent malaria.

3. Our hospital received 9,873,000 malaria tablets from the Minister of Health.
4. 3,104,250 millilitres of blood were donated in Addis Ababa.
5. Over 5,368,470 people tested for HIV/AIDS at the health centre.

(b) Change the words to figures.

6. Three million, seven hundred fifty thousand, two hundred.
7. Four million, two hundred twenty five thousand, sixty five .
8. Five million, nine hundred twenty thousand, two hundred fifty.
9. Seven million, twenty eight thousand.
10. Nine million, nine thousand nine hundred.

LESSON NINE

The Past Simple Tense

Activity 1

Answer the following questions about yourself. Share your answers with a partner.

1. When were you born?
2. Where were you born?
3. Where did you go for Grade 1?
4. When did you join Grade 1?
5. What did you do last year?

Exercise 1: These sentences are in the present simple tense. Copy them in your exercise book and change them to the past simple tense.

Example: Almaz writes letters to friends in Kenya.
Almaz wrote letters to friends in Kenya.

1. He drives the ambulance to the hospital.
2. The doctor treats all the patients.
3. He cannot eat because he has no appetite.

4. The students clean the compound every morning.
5. He loses weight when he falls sick.

Exercise 2: Change the words in brackets into their past simple tense.

1. He (go) to the clinic and got treatment.
2. The nurse (attend) to the sick lady and gave her medicine.
3. She (buy) a mosquito net and gave it to her daughter.
4. The parents (immunise) all their children last week.
5. The doctor (examine) all the patients and treated them.
6. She (sweat) a lot when she got malaria.
7. They (clean) all the drainage systems.
8. He (clear) the bush and (prevent) mosquitoes from breeding.

Using: should / ought to

Activity 2

Study and discuss these sentences with a partner. How do sentences in B differ from those in C?

1. A: I am not sure of my HIV status.
B: You should go for a blood test.
C: You ought to go for a blood test.
2. A: Abiot has had an accident.
B: You should give him first aid.
C: You ought to give him first aid.

Exercise 3: Form correct sentences.

Example : The clinic is a long way from home. (Use a taxi)

- (a) You should use a taxi.
- (b) You ought to use a taxi.

1. He has a deep cut. (bandage the wound)
2. The boy is losing weight. (take him to hospital)

Exercise 4: Give advice about the following: Use, should / ought to.

1. I have had malaria for over a fortnight.
2. Our neighbour is pregnant.
3. I have a bad tooth.

B Reading

LESSON TEN

Dialogue

Activity 1

Study the dialogue and practise it with your partner.

Nurse : Woizero Fanose, how old is your son?

Woizero Fanose : He made eight months on Tuesday.

Nurse : Has he taken vaccination against the killer diseases?

Woizero Fanose : Yes, he has.

Nurse : What was his condition last night?

Woizero Fanose : He had a very high fever and he was shivering.

Nurse : That could be malaria. Do you have overgrown grass or swamp in your area?

Woizero Fanose : Not at all. I always make sure that grass is cut short.

Nurse : His blood needs to be tested.

Nurse : (after getting the blood-test results) Your son has typhoid fever. The doctor will treat him and he will tell you how to keep your food and water clean to avoid such diseases.

Woizero Fanose : Thank you.

Exercise 1: Answer the questions based on the dialogue.

1. Where did the conversation take place?
2. How did Woizero Fanose know that her son had become ill?
3. How old is Woizero Fanose's son?
4. Why did the nurse take a blood test?

PoemActivity 2

Read the poem and answer the questions.

Life

There's nothing as good as life,
There's not a thing as dear as life,
Your health is your wealth indeed,

So protect your health,
By practising good health habits.
There's nothing as pleasant as life,
There isn't any other thing that is more valuable.
Minimise dangers from germs, bacteria and viruses
Protect the environment, protect yourself.

There's a lot you can do in your community.
Make it a habit to use a dustbin.
Take a broom and sweep your room daily,
Boiled drinking water is good for your health.
A visit to a doctor is a good habit.

Exercise 2: Answer the following questions.

1. Name four good health habits.
2. What other word could mean the same as dear?

3. Why is health referred to as wealth?
4. What are the major enemies of life?
5. What does the term environment mean?
6. When and why should we use soap?
7. How can you avoid germs?

C Writing

LESSON ELEVEN

Health poster

Activity

In groups, discuss this health poster.

PREVENTION IS BETTER THAN CURE.

SLEEP UNDER A MOSQUITO NET.

EVERYBODY SHOULD FIGHT MALARIA.

CLEAN THE ENVIRONMENT TO GET RID OF MOSQUITOES.

Design two posters. The posters should show how:

- (i) AIDS can be prevented.
- (ii) any other common disease in your area can be prevented.

Exercise: Rearrange the words to write correct health messages.

1. going to Avoid places lonely
2. at night Don't walk alone

3. about AIDS Share information
4. sharp instruments Don't with play
5. cure for AIDS There is no
6. from sex Abstain until married get you
7. your wealth Your health is
8. share injections Don't

LESSON TWELVE

Comprehension

Activity

Discuss the following in groups.

1. Have you ever suffered from malaria? Describe how you felt.
2. List down the symptoms of malaria.
3. What must be done to prevent malaria?

Exercise 1: Read the passage below and answer the questions.

A boy falls sick

A woman lived in Tana village where there was neither clinic nor pharmacy. The woman had only one son. One day, her son fell sick and could not go to school. He had a high fever.

She went to a little shop to buy some tablets for her son. The boy did not want to take the tablets and he had to be forced.

After taking the tablets, the boy got some relief and he slept soundly. As he was preparing to go to school the following morning, he started shivering and coughing. He went back to bed and covered himself with a blanket. After a few days, he got weaker and started losing weight. When he lost appetite, his mother became concerned.

“My son may have contracted AIDS,” she thought . She remembered that her son had once said he had a girl friend in the village. Everyone thought that girl was HIV positive.

The following day, the boy’s mother travelled to a clinic near town. The nurse advised her to take her son to hospital immediately.

An ambulance came and took him to Felege Hiwot Hospital. Tears ran down his mother’s eyes as he became weaker and weaker. She feared that he would die. The doctor had the boy’s sputum tested. The test results showed that the boy was suffering from tuberculosis.

The doctor assured the mother that her son would get well after the treatment. The boy had to stay in hospital for more than three weeks.

1. What was the relationship between the sick boy and the woman?
2. What was the boy forced to do?
3. Why did the boy’s cough persist?
4. How did the woman and the boy travel to hospital?
5. What should we do when we fall sick?
6. How did the doctor tell what the boy was suffering from?

Exercise 2: Study the table and answer the questions below.

Disease	How it is acquired	Prevention
Malaria	mosquito bites	(a) Slash bush round the house. (b) Drain stagnant water. (c) Sleep under a mosquito net.
Diarrhoea	drinking dirty water eating contaminated food breeding houseflies	(a) Boil drinking water. (b) Cook food. (c) Clean your environment.

1. What causes malaria?
2. How can we stop malaria?
3. What causes diarrhoea?
4. How can we stop diarrhoea?

LESSON THIRTEEN

Comprehension

Activity 1

Discuss the following questions in groups.

1. What do you know about HIV/AIDS?
2. What can be done to prevent the spread of HIV/AIDS?
3. What care and support should be given to HIV/AIDS patients?

Exercise 1: Read the passage below and answer the questions.

HIV/AIDS in Ethiopia

HIV/AIDS is still a threat in Ethiopia. It is one of the key challenges for the development of Ethiopia because it has greatly reduced the workforce.

Among the patients tested 4.7 per cent were HIV positive.

Within each region, the testing found the prevailing rate varying from 0.2 per cent to 6.0 per cent.

Based on continental clinic surveillance data, HIV prevalence has dropped to about 10.1 per cent in urban areas and 1.8 per cent in rural areas.

HIV/AIDS is acquired primarily through sexual contact. In urban areas, young women are at a higher risk of infection than young men.

A national HIV/AIDS Prevention Control Council was established in Ethiopia.

The council will go a long way in preventing the spread of HIV/AIDS. We, too, can help in this struggle if we:

- (a) abstain from sex before marriage.
- (b) avoid risky sexual behaviour.
- (c) do not share sharp objects.

Source: Single Point HIV Prevalence Estimate, Federal HIV/AIDS Prevention and Control Office (FHAPCO), 2007

1. How has HIV/AIDS affected development?
2. What is the HIV prevalence rate?
3. Why do you think that HIV prevalence has dropped?
4. Who are more likely to be infected with HIV/AIDS?
5. Which organisation is helping in the prevention of the spread of HIV/AIDS?

Vocabulary network

Activity 2

Form a group and talk about the different diseases in the community today. How can they be treated or prevented? Draw a table like the one below in your exercise book to help you organise the information.

disease	treatment / prevention	medical personnel
cough	pills	nurse / doctor
polio	vaccination	nurse / doctor

Exercise 2: Answer these questions.

1. What diseases could one catch by drinking unboiled water?
2. How would one catch the AIDS virus?
3. Why is it good to bathe everyday?
4. Name the six killer diseases.
5. What is an ambulance used for?
6. What are the symptoms of malaria?

Objectives

In this unit you will:

- ▶ listen to stories about animals.
- ▶ describe animals and tell stories about them.

A Listening and speaking

LESSON ONE

Activity

In a group, discuss what you see in the picture.

Exercise: Answer these questions.

1. Name the animals in the picture.
2. What do you think the lion is telling the animals?
3. What are the rest of the animals doing?
4. Why is one of the animals up in the tree?
5. What traditional story do you know about each of the animals in the picture?

LESSON TWO

Listening

Activity 1

In a small group, tell stories and listen to stories from your partners. Act the roles of the different animals in your stories. Your teacher will guide you.

Exercise: Your teacher will read to you a poem entitled Animal Voices.
Listen carefully and answer the questions.

1. Which animals do you think suckle their calves?
2. What does the farmer get from the animals kept on a farm?
3. What name is given to meat from a sheep?
4. When is life not good for animals kept on a farm?
5. What is an abattoir?
6. Name some of the animals kept on this farm.

Activity 2

What stories have you heard about the following animals. Retell the stories to your group members.

- (a) Hyena (b) Hare (c) Elephant

LESSON THREE

Word practice

Activity 1

Read the following sentences and identify words related to animal stories.

1. Our grandfather told us an interesting story about the hare.
2. Most traditional stories begin with Once upon a time ..
3. Can you imagine how life would be if all animals could talk?
4. Mr. Hyena expressed his thanks to Mr. Hare.
5. The rat was thankful to the lion.
6. Grandmother was excited when I told her about Funny Hare.
7. You have to listen attentively if you want to enjoy the story.

Grammar: Language practice

The Past Simple Tense

Activity 2

In a group, study and discuss the following sentences.

1. Grandfather told us interesting stories.
2. Hyena stole the meat and got caught.
3. Only Hare knew the answer to the puzzle.
4. Hare bought a fat bull from the market.
5. Hyena sold the groundnuts and got money.
6. Rat made an attempt to dig holes in the floor of the house.
7. Frog beat bat and ran away.

Exercise 1: Complete the following table.

Verb	Past
bite	bit
buy
catch	caught dig get	got

Verb	Past lose
make	made run
see	saw sing

Exercise 2: Change the verbs in brackets into the past simple tense form.

1. Dove (see) kite and flew away.
2. Leopard (catch) Hare and gave him a kick.
3. Hen (spread) the beans in the compound.
4. Bat (stand) at the side of the house.
5. The animals (make) a lot of noise at the party.

These verbs do not change.

Verb	Past
beat	beat
broadcast	broadcast
cut	cut
hit	hit
hurt	hurt

LESSON FOUR

Picture discussion

Activity

Your teacher will read a story to you. Listen carefully and arrange the pictures in their correct order.

1

3

4

5

6

7

Tell the story about the man and the snake to a partner in your own words.

Exercise: Think of a story. Draw pictures to represent the different events of that story.

LESSON FIVE

Comparatives and superlatives

Regular adjectives

Activity

With a partner, discuss the sentences and identify the adjectives.

Tortoise was a slow animal.

Chameleon was slower than Tortoise.

Snail was the slowest of the three.

Exercise 1: Study these adjectives and fill in the missing forms of the adjectives in the table.

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
slow	slower	slowest
quick	quicker
wise	wisest
fast	faster
fat	fattest
small	smaller

Exercise 2:

(a) Form correct sentences using words in brackets. Write the sentences in your exercise book.

- Dove was (rich) than Cock.
 - Eagle was the (rich) of the three.
- Leopard was (wise) than Lion.
 - Hare was the (wise) of the three.

(b) Construct sentences using each of the following words.

- smaller smallest
- quicker quickest
- fatter fattest
- richer richest

Grammar highlight:

We use than when comparing two people or things.

We use the when comparing more than two people, animals or things.

Regular adjectives

Regular adjectives add er to change to the comparative. They add est to change to the superlative.

LESSON SIXIrregular adjectives

Study these adjectives.

bad	worse	worst
good	better	best
little	less	least
many	more	most
much	more	most

Activity 1

With a partner, discuss the sentences and identify the irregular adjectives.

Tortoise brought a bad picture.

Chameleon's picture was worse than Tortoise's.

Snail's picture was the worst of all.

Exercise 1: Form correct sentences using the words in brackets.

- There were (many) birds than animals in the garden.
 - (Many) of the animals hid in the forest.
- Duck's letter was (good) than Dove's.
 - Hen's letter was the (good) of the three.

LESSON SEVEN

Compound sentences

Activity

In groups, discuss the following compound sentences and identify the two sentences.

1. The hare bought some meat and the hyena stole it.
2. The leopard stood up to speak, but the animals did not listen.
3. The dove bought a needle and the cock took it away.
4. The chameleon was slow but it arrived here before the elephant.

Exercise 1: Form correct sentences in your exercise book from the table.

Rat bought a cow

Owl entered the dark house

Bat cut off frog's tail

Elephant shouted for help

Hippo had ordered him.

Man took it away from him.

Hare came to assist him.

Python opened his mouth to swallow him.

Exercise 2: Write 5 compound sentences in your exercise book.

LESSON EIGHT

Dialogue

Activity

Read and act the dialogue in pairs.

Lion: Excuse me, sir, I would like to come and live in your home.

Man: I am sorry. I can't let you live in my home.

Lion: But why? You have let the cow live in your home.

Man: The cow is very useful to me. She gives me milk and meat.

Lion: Would you then take me to the zoo?

Man: Why would you want to be taken to the zoo?

Lion: Since I can't give you milk and meat, I would earn you a lot of money when tourists come to see me.

Man: That's a good idea. I apologise for thinking that you were useless.

Lion: It's alright.

Exercise : Write a paragraph describing some of the traditional stories you have listened to.

What do you learn from the traditional stories?
Why do you think traditional stories are good?

B Reading

LESSON NINE

Comprehension

Activity

In a group, talk about some birds that take part in traditional stories you know.

Exercise 1: Read the story below and answer the questions that follow.

Why Ostrich cannot fly

One evening Rebeka said to her children, “ I would like you to answer this question. Do you know why Ostrich can’t fly?.

“That is an easy question,” said Emebet. “ He is too heavy to fly.”

“Yes,” Tamiru added, “Unless Ostrich reduces his weight, he will never be able to fly.”

Rebeka said, “What are your reasons? I know you cannot give me the exact answer I want.”

She told them to listen because she was going to give them the right answer.

“Long ago,” she said, “Ostrich could fly like the other birds. He had a ring in his stomach which enabled him to fly. But Ostrich was a dangerous bird. He used to kick and kill the smaller birds. Did you know that Ostrich is the biggest bird on earth!

“Yes, we do. We learnt about it at school,” they said proudly.

“One day,” Rebeka went on, “all the birds held a meeting.” They said, ‘We must do something to get rid of Ostrich because of his bad behaviour. Unless we send him away from our village, he will kill all of us’.

They turned to Dove and said, “Dove, you are very clever. You know what we can do to send Ostrich away from our land.” Dove said, “Oh yes! I know what can be done. Ostrich has a ring in his stomach. That ring gives him the power to fly. If that ring is squeezed out of him he won’t be able to fly again.” The birds agreed to squeeze the ring out of Ostrich.

When the day came Dove said, “We’ve got to teach this enemy a lesson or he will kill us all.”

We ought to go slowly, in order not to be heard. Are you ready to attack?” All birds said, “Let’s go and attack him now.”

Ostrich was asleep under a mango tree when all birds attacked him at once. By the time he realised what was happening, they were squeezing him down. Ostrich pleaded for mercy because the pain was too much to bear. But the birds kept squeezing him until he was forced to spit the ring.

Dove picked it up and threw it in the lake. From that day on, Ostrich has not been able to fly again.

Today, the birds tease the Ostrich. They fly near the ground, but when he tries to catch them, they fly higher. Very often Ostrich is seen walking in the sand looking for his ring. He says that if he finds it, he will fly again and kill all the birds.

The children clapped happily for their mother and went to sleep.

1. Who was Rebeka?
2. Why was the ostrich bad to the other birds?
3. Do you think the birds were right to punish the ostrich? Give reasons.
4. Imagine you were the Ostrich. What would you do to live happily with other birds?
5. Why do you think the children clapped at the end of the story?
6. How should you behave before adults?

Exercise 2: These words are taken from the story. Based on the story, match the words in column A with their meanings in column B.

A	B
reduce	energy
dangerous	making fun of
get rid of	control
power	pressing
attack	send away
squeezing	bad
teasing	fight

LESSON TEN

Activity

With a partner, read about these animals. Compare the animals. Discuss the differences. Answer the questions.

The dog is the friendliest animal. It is a good hunter as well.

The fox is the most sly animal. It is cunning as well.

The elephant is the largest land animal. It weighs 5000-6000 kilogrammes.

The cheetah is the fastest animal. It runs at about 90 kilometres per hour.

The black mamba is the most dangerous snake in Africa. It is found in tropical areas.

The bat is a mammal that flies. It suckles its young ones.

The giraffe is the tallest animal. It is about 6 metres tall.

The hippo is the largest water mammal. It weighs about 2500 kg.

The ostrich is the largest bird in the world. It is also the fastest. It does not fly.

Exercise: Choose the right answer and write it in your exercise book.

- Which animal flies and suckles its young ones?
A. fox B. bat C. cheetah

2. How heavy is the largest water animal?
A. 5,000 kg. B. 2,500 kg. C. 4,000 kg.
3. Which animal is very cunning?
A. giraffe B. hippo C. fox
4. Where do we find the most dangerous snake?
A. in tropical areas B. in desert areas C. in Africa
5. Which mammal lives in water but comes out at night to feed?
A. dog B. cheetah C. hippo
6. Which animal is faster than all other animals?
A. giraffe B. cheetah C. dog

LESSON ELEVEN

Comprehension

Activity

1. Discuss the moral of the animal stories you know.
2. Which animals take part in the animal stories you know?

Exercise 1: Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

Fanaye and the Hyenas

Once upon a time, there was a woman called Fanaye. She lived with her husband in Awramba village. They had a daughter called Tiru. When Tiru was about ten years old, her father died. From then on, Fanaye lived alone with her daughter. Fanaye loved Tiru very much. She always imagined that life would be meaningless without her.

One day, five hyenas came to Fanaye's home. The hyenas had a problem. They were looking for a place to spend the night, since it was getting dark. Fanaye let them into her house and prepared a good place for them to sleep.

Early the following morning, Fanaye had to go to the garden about a mile away. Tiru was still asleep, so Fanaye asked the hyenas to look after her while she was away.

Later, Tiru woke up and started playing. One of the hyenas watched her as she played. She was so beautiful and the hyena was tempted to eat her. And he did. After eating Tiru, the Hyena's stomach grew so big that he couldn't stand up.

In the evening, Fanaye returned from the garden. Her beautiful daughter was nowhere to be seen. Fanaye became angry. She beat up all the hyenas. She wanted to know which of them had eaten Tiru but they would not tell her. She thought of a trick that would make them talk. She made them line up and asked them one by one in a very soft voice: "Did you eat my child?"

Each hyena answered with a song:

“Upon my word I didn't eat your child.
The one who ate her is now wild.
There is no Tiru at all.
I am telling the truth.
My stomach is empty.”

When the fifth hyena came. It had a very big stomach. It could hardly move, let alone sing. “Did you eat my child?” Fanaye asked.

“I swear, I didn’t eat the child
 Take my word though I’m wild.
 If you checked my stomach you would see only meat.
 It’s Tiru who gave it to me to eat.”

Fanaye then knew this very hyena had eaten up her daughter. Fanaye speared the hyena. As he was about to die he said, “Cut off my smallest finger, I beg you.” Fanaye cut off the smallest finger as the hyena had requested. As soon as she did so, Tiru came out of the hyena’s stomach alive. Fanaye was delighted to see Tiru alive. She wanted to kill the other hyenas but they escaped while laughing. From that time on, whenever hyenas see a person they think it is Fanaye. They laugh as they run away.

1. How many children did Fanaye have?
2. Write one word to describe Fanaye after her husband had died.
3. Write one word to describe Tiru after her father had died.
4. Do you think Fanaye was a kind woman? Give a reason.
5. Why did one of the hyenas eat Tiru?
6. “One good turn deserves another.” How would the hyenas have applied this saying?
7. Why was Fanaye angry with the hyenas?
8. Why do you think hyenas laugh whenever they see a person?

Exercise 2: Match the words in column A with their meanings in column B.

A	B
imagined	came back
turning	everytime
watched	becoming
tempted	happy
returned	thought
empty	asked
requested	attracted
delighted	looked at
whenever	with nothing

C Writing

LESSON TWELVE

Composition

Activity

Read the beginning and the end of the story. With your partner, discuss what happened in the middle of the story.

Exercise: Write short sentences describing what happened. Read out the middle part to the class.

Why Cock Crows

Cock and Dove lived together. Their wings were not well-shaped so they couldn't fly. Dove bought a green pin and used it to make his wings get a better shape. The pin did a good job. At the end of two weeks, Dove could fly up in the air. When Cock saw that Dove was flying, he wanted to fly too. However much he tried, he couldn't.

Cock crows everyday early in the morning and during the day till evening. He wants the pin to fix his wings so that he may fly. When Cock gets the pin he will stop crowing and fly high. Will Dove give him the pin?

LESSON THIRTEEN

Revision Exercise

A Arrange the letters to write correct words.
